About the show Edit

Bediones-Cosim era

Edit

The newscast is based on News5's slogan "Higit sa Balita, Impormasyon at Kaganapan, Aksyon." which literally means "Beyond the news, information, and events, Action." Aksyon premiered on April 5, 2010 at 9:00 pm with Paolo Bediones and Cheryl Cosim as its first anchors. The news program used a touch screen television called "Aksyon Board". It is also the first local newscast to report via Live-Pack in contrast to the OB Vans used by its competitors. There is also a round-up news update called Aksyon Ngayon anchored by Dindo Flora, Cristina Lazo, and former Tambayan 101.9 DJ Reggie Valdez.

Bediones-Cosim-Tulfo era

Edit

On October 25, 2010, Erwin Tulfo of the police-report-and-public-service-segment Aksyon Metro joined the newscast and their time slot was moved from 9:30 pm to 5:30 pm. The same day, the newscast also introduced a new augmented virtuality set and OBB.

On November 8, 2010, the newscast began its simulcast on the newly-launched 92.3 News FM.

Cosim-Tulfo era

Edit

On February 17, 2011, Paolo Bediones left the newscast for Aksyon JournalismMO, leaving Cosim and Tulfo as the main anchors, with Shawn Yao (showbiz and weather) and Makata Tawanan (Makata's Super Bidyo) as segment anchors. The newscast was also given new graphics and new virtual background while starting its simulcast on AksyonTV on February 21, 2011. In the opening ident, gave a sneak peek of the day's headlines with clips from the specific news items, before, the opening billboard retained, after which, Martin Andanar provided the voice-over "Mula sa TV5 newscenter Manila, ito ang Aksyon" to introduce the newscast and its anchorpersons.

As of May 16, 2011, Aksyon moved to 6:30pm to 7:30pm timeslots at the same ratings in order for the latter show to compete with rivals TV

Patrol and

24 Oras.

On June 6, 2011, the newscast added a news desk while updating their graphics and title card. Makata's Super Bidyo, a video features segment, was reformatted with its new name Makatang Gala (The Stray Poet), where Makata Tawanan goes on streets to bring information to its viewers.

On July 11, 2011, Aksyon is simulcast worldwide with the launch of Kapatid TV5 and AksyonTV International while starting to feature news from overseas Filipino communities. On July 18, 2011, Aksyon is simulcast live nationwide along with the rest of the TV5 Kapatid shows. Aksyon in Manila is so popular in the entire Philippines that regional versions in TV5 stations in Baguio, Cebu and Davao were launched the first ever regional versions outside Manila. Aksyon now features news from the regions in the Philippines. On July 25, 2011, Lourd de Veyra joined the newscast, hosting his weather-and-trivia-segment Weather or Not.

On September 5, 2011, the runtime was once again reduced to 30 minutes due to the airing of T3: Kapatid Sagot Kita of which Erwin Tulfo is one of the host alongside his brothers Raffy Tulfo and Ben Tulfo

The reformat introduced some minor changes to the graphics, title cards, opening billboard, enhanced set design that reflects the "inverted" color scheme and accommodate the augmented virtuality used throughout the news program.

On the same day as the relaunch, Shawn Yao was retained the segment host for Showbiz Aksyon, while Lourd De Veyra retained as a weather forecaster and trivia of the day. A five week later after the relaunch, Makata Tawanan later returned as a reinstated humor and features reporter.

Also, Marvin Agustin along with former Kapuso stars Janice de Belen, Carmina Villaroel, Zoren Legaspi, Ella Cruz and Dingdong Dantes, which recently return to ABS-CBN are back in Kapamilya family. Also, former Kapamilya talents are megastar Sharon Cuneta, Derek Ramsay, popstar princess Sarah Geronimo from Kapamilya crossover, return of the actor Onemig Bondoc, Valerie Concepcion and Dominic Ochoa recently transfer to TV5 right after the comedy king Dolfy, actor John Prats, Willie Revillame, John Estrada, Cristine Bersola-Babao and Aga Muhlach.

Among the program's highlights is the much-anticipated return of Willie Revillame to the noontime slot with his upcoming new show, Wowowillie. In a pre-taped segment, Willie gave a tour of the new, state-of-the-art Wowowillie studio still under construction at the Delta Theater in Quezon City. Willie said the studio will be completed by the time Wowowillie makes its on-air debut on January 16.

Recalling Billy Crystal's famous Oscar opening montage that usually finds him inserted in scenes from the nominated films, Arnell Ignacio and Tuesday Vargas sang a hysterical version of Ryan Cayabyab's Limang Dipang Tao as they invaded the sets of new series Kidlat, The Alabang Housewives and the upcoming romance drama Never Say Goodbye and literally found themselves in the middle of the action (with Derek), comedy (with Pamela and Vanessa) and even drama (with superstar Nora Aunor).

As part of its comprehensive coverage of this year's elections dubbed as Pagbabago 2013, News5 head Luchi Cruz-Valdes announced the upcoming premiere of Balwarte on February 3. The new documentary show will take a closer look at key families in positions of power.

Cruz-Valdes also proudly announced that the internationally recognized cause journalism pioneered by Rescue5 will be taken to another level with a new, weekly reality show that documents the real tension and drama of saving lives. Hosted by Paolo Bediones, Rescue5 starts airing every Saturday beginning January 26.

Also set to launch soon is News5 Everywhere, an innovative interactive initiative that allows the general public to be part of the news by commenting on real time and even upload videos of things they deem newsworthy.

Together with PBA legend Benjie Paras, football heartthrobs Phil and James Younghusband took to the stage to welcome the new sports line-up of TV5's AKTV channel, including the new record-breaking seasons of the Philippine Basketball Association (PBA) and the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) that has now emerged as the country's premier collegiate basketball tournament.

Another big sporting event to look forward to is the upcoming season of the UFL Suzuki Cup featuring our very own Azkals.

A return of the actor Onemig Bondoc, Martin Escudero and Christian Samson are the sitcom called Whattamen which premieres on January 26 from Saturday mornings together with John Estrada, Alex Gonzaga and Janella Salvador.

Ryan Agoncillo also happily announced that the country's premiere talent reality show is going global with Talentadong Pinoy Worldwide as the show's dazzling hall-of-famers provided the backdrop for a medley of popular Pinoy rock songs by The Company.

Joey De Leon returns to primetime TV as he introduced his own new show called, Hayop sa Galing. The series puts a new twist on typical video clip shows as celebrity guests will be treated to heart-pounding challenges related to the videos. Hayop Sa Galing premieres on January 26.

Other new shows featured in the trade launch were Jeepney Jackpot, Game N' Go All Stars, Popstar TV, which will stars pop heartthrob Mark Bautista on January 28 with her own one and only pop princess Sarah Geronimo, The Million Peso Money Drop now with new host Ogie Alcasid on January 26 and Good Morning Club, which will welcome Edu Manzano as a co-host on January 21.

Marvin Agustin, Alex Gonzaga, Gelli De Belen, Wendell Ramos, Ruffa Gutierrez, Derek Ramsay, Divine Lee, Onemig Bondoc, Sarah Geronimo, John Prats, Janella Salvador, Dominic Ochoa, Divina Geronimo, John Estrada, Mark Bautista, were also among the presenters, while other performers include the Manila Symphony Orchestra, the Artista Academy graduates, the Gaga Dancers, Street Boys and TV5 princesses Ritz Azul, Eula Caballero, Jasmine Curtis-Smith, Danita Paner and Arci Munoz.

Before the show closed, TV5 Chairman Manny V. Pangilinan delivered brief closing remarks that recalled how the network overcame "considerable skepticism" when it only had a 3 percent audience share three years ago. TV5 now enjoys a respectable 15 to 17 percent overall share. Despite the bigger challenges up ahead, MVP is confident that the only way for the network to go is up.

Reenergized? Changing the game? Reinventing the landscape of television and other media? The Go5! trade launch showed that TV5 is dead serious about living up to those big words in 2013.

Controversy Edit

Mon Tulfo vs. Barreto/Santiago airport brawl Edit

The Movie and Television Review and Classification Board is currently investigating the show, following its May 7, 2012 episode, in which the hosts issued threats to celebrity couple Raymart Santiago and Claudine Barretto in connection with the brawl with their brother Ramon Tulfo in the Ninoy Aquino International Airport Terminal 3 on May 6.<sup>[1]</sup> They made a public apology the following day, but they were still suspended from hosting the show as well as other News5 programs aired in TV5 and AksyonTV for 3 days from May 9-11, 2012.<sup>[2]</sup>

The MTRCB suspend the show from May 10 to 17.<sup>[3]</sup> Ramon Tulfo, Martin Andanar and Atty Mel Sta. Maria hosted the May 9 episode before the suspension. TV5 is questioning the agency's action, declaring that it could threaten the freedom of the press.<sup>[4]</sup> A television version of Relasyon from Radyo5 92.3 News FM, hosted by Luchi Cruz-Valdez and Mel Sta. Maria, is filled up the T3's timeslot from May 10-11. As of May 14, the timeslot was occupied by Sharon: Kasama Mo, Kapatid and Metro Aksyon which was extended to 30 minutes, carrying T3's format, aside for bringing news. The suspension was later lifted by the MTRCB effective May 17, only 7 days into the scheduled 20 day suspension after the settlement of MTRCB and TV5 and returned on air on the following day.<sup>[5]</sup>

From May 30-June 20, 2012, T3 was once again suspended after a "thorough deliberation" by the MTRCB adjudication board.<sup>[6]</sup> T3's timeslot, once again, filled up by Metro Aksyon with T3 hosts Ben and Raffy Tulfo anchoring. On June 20, 2012, 3 weeks into the scheduled 3 month suspension, the Court of Appeals issued a 60-day temporary restraining order (TRO) to stop the suspension.<sup>[7]</sup> It is expected to return on air on June 25.

Carabuena vs. Fabros road rage incident Edit

On August 11, 2012, the T3 crew saw the brawl between Robert Blair Carabuena, an executive in the Phillip Morris and Saturnino Fabros, an MMDA enforcer in Quezon City. It was shown on the August 13 edition of the show. It was a trending topic in social media when Fabros became popular while Carrabuena was suspended by the company, but he made a public apology with MMDA Chairman Francis Tolentino a few weeks later. Fabros refused to accept his apology. Fabros was promoted to a Rank II traffic enforcer.

Bitag

Bitag (literally Trap) is an investigative and public service program hosted by Ben Tulfo and produced by BST Tri-Media Productions that airs in the Philippines. Launched on September 14, 2002, it first aired on Associated Broadcasting Company (now TV5) before moving the following year to Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation (IBC) before returning again to TV5. It is currently aired on the government-owned IBC every Friday night. During its launch, Ben described it as an investigative show like no other that strays away from the "packaged" aggressive image that the Tulfo clan is known for by adopting a more cut-throat, in-your-face approach. Its success also spawned a recap (later talk) show that aired during weekday mornings on UNTV as Bitag Live, and simulcast on radio through DZME and DWUN. As of February 2013, Bitag Live is currently aired on AksyonTV and simulcast on DWFM.<sup>[1]</sup> Bitag is also a segment of the TV5 public service program T3: Reload, where Ben co-hosts with brothers Erwin Tulfo and Raffy Tulfo.

Format Edit

An episode usually contains 3 different cases set to stock film, music and industrial sound effects sardonically narrated by Ben before wrapping it up with an educational segment sponsored by PAGCOR. Bitag operates semi-autonomously, conducting reconnaissance and surveillance and deploys their own agents as undercovers. When enough intelligence is gathered, Ben coordinates with the local authorities to plan the manner of arrest and follows them with his convoy of security back-ups and camera men to document the entire procedure and its aftermath. In accordance with Ben's eschewal of "drama" and production in favor of "real reality", most cases air days after the shoot with minor cuts and editing used only to fit the documented footage under 10 minute segments. This is further proven by Ben's occasional absence in his AksyonTV show Bitag Live on weekdays, when he personally oversees certain case operations.

The programs segments are classified according to their nature:

- Operations, which document actual Bitag operations in coordination with law enforcement elements.
- Updates, or follow-up reports on the status of successful Bitag operations.
- Kilos Pronto segments, which showcase immediate action or assistance on complaints or concerns.
- Akto segments, usually depicting irregularities or "questionable" situations unexpectedly encountered by Bitag (caught in the act).
- Wanted, a new segment featuring the apprehension of a "wanted" criminal.
- Biblically Speaking, a biblical related segment hosted by Bro. Eli Soriano. This was only seen during the program's UNTV years.

- Rewind, replays of existing episodes, often as reminders to the public.

For safety reasons, the Bitag strike force is fully armed and trained in self-defense disciplines (including Tulfo himself) and comprises professional security personnel. They are also allowed to carry their firearms in airplanes and vessels provided they surrender it prior to departure. However, the team still makes it a point to request assistance from the local authorities when dwelling in unfamiliar territory in accordance with the law.

Bitag was originally pitched to other TV networks but an unidentified "Tulfo" was opposed to it [2]

Bitag Live Edit

In 2004, UNTV provided Ben with his own daily morning show Bahala si Bitag (taking its name from his bi-weekly newspaper column of the same name) where Ben fields questions and complaints from callers in addition to showing re-runs of cases for the purpose of alerting the public.

The show has since renamed to Bitag Live. The show underwent through a series of changes in conjunction with their tagline of "continuous change for the better", incorporating their Kilos Pronto segment (from Bitag) into their show as a live help line and updated the stale set with a more modern look - most noticeably their use of a Plasma TV backdrop. (Those were later removed.) BITAG Live also has invited guests to speak regarding cases Bitag currently holds, or to speak regarding current issues. They also add a religious portion Biblically Speaking hosted by Bro. Eli Soriano. In 2007, Ben started prefacing lectures with "were taking care of business" when showing his subjects how Bitag would deal with the matter. Consequently, Takin' Care of Business by Bachman-Turner Overdrive is used as the theme song on one of their remixed ads. Late in the show's UNTV tenure, it also added lifestyle-related segments.

In 2013, the program found a new home on TV5's free-to-air UHF station AksyonTV; the said station also airs brothers Erwin and Raffy's own programs Punto Asintado and Wanted sa Radyo respectively, as well as T3: Reload, all of which also simulcast on radio through DWFM.

Appearance of other Tulfo Siblings in Bitag Edit

In 2006, Erwin Tulfo, Ben's younger brother and a contracted but underused employee of ABS-CBN, officially joined Bitag, and Bahala si Bitag was renamed to Bahala sina Ben at Erwin as both would answer calls and discuss subjects on air equally in addition to having his own segment (under the motif Mission-X) on its main show. The pairing did not last long and BST's title has since reverted to the previous title after Erwin left to team up with his other brothers Ramon Tulfo and Raffy Tulfo in the show Isumbong Mo (Tulfo Brothers) on RPN-9. The latter aired its final episode on August 12, 2006 [3]

Facing charges of libel, Erwin re-joined Bitag on March 1, 2007 albeit in a lesser capacity. Erwin often accompany Ben during high-profile cases or works individually, no longer sharing hosting duties on BST. Back then, Erwin maintains a subgroup called Mission-X, as well as its own separate action center, that peers with Bitag's. Ben and Erwin occasionally combine their workforce (Bitag and Mission-X) when necessary. There were times Erwin handled certain BITAG cases and encounters the suspects themselves in lieu of Ben, particularly in sensitive cases that requires a little more restraint.

However, Erwin left Bitag and has since spun off his own brand of public service to TV5's Tutok Tulfo.

Raffy from Wanted sa Radyo has also been featured in Bitag on October 11, 2008, in an episode of him helping out on an investigation, and in a drug den raid. Similarly,[[[Ramon Tulfo]], the eldest of the siblings, has also appeared in BITAG as well, during the drug den raid in Mabalacat, Pampanga.

All 4 public service brands by the mentioned siblings (Bitag, Erwin's Mission-X, Raffy's Wanted sa Radyo and Ramon's Isumbong Mo Kay Tulfo!; Raffy and Ramon's tandem is also called Tulfo Brothers alternatively.) has united together at least once in a given operation. Ramon Tulfo's Isumbong Mo Kay Tulfo! made a comeback to DZIQ, PDI's radio arm, before returning to DWIZ. Ramon's younger brothers would eventually end up as hosts for TV5's public service program T3: Reload, although Ramon later became a co-host himself briefly prior to the infamous incident with Raymart Santiago and Claudine Barretto.

Unique elements Edit

Although the concept of investigative and public service programs are hardly new on local television, there are still differences between the show and most of its rivals. While their peers are restricted entirely to the confines of their studio/shooting location or function exclusively as "hosts", Ben considers himself as an investigator (but still he was a media personality), and is on the field most of the time while still regarding his prey with the same unabashed contempt, regardless of proximity. Most importantly, the show doesn't discriminate and has handled cases both small and large and is nonchalant with regards to the background of the felons they pursue - be it the child of a network executive, high-ranking police officers, government institutions, city mayors, foreigners, relatives of influential entities or huge crime syndicates - as host Ben Tulfo always says, "Walang sinasanto't walang sinisino ang patibong ng Bitag!" (The snare of Bitag recognizes and discriminates no one!)

Host Edit

Perhaps the shows main draw is its host (and also producer and director) Ben Tulfo who subscribes to the adage "it takes a wolf to catch a wolf" which, more often that not, leads to precarious situations that he immerses himself with gusto. Each case, Ben finds himself getting in the face of his subjects, be it ordinary suspects or policemen - sparring verbally (often laced with profanity) and at times, physically. Being the shows producer as well, he prefers an approach and presentation that lets the viewers see the true face of reality, no matter how grim or disturbing it is - the lack of a formal script means no dramatizations or re-enactments, as said by the shows tagline, "Hindi ito drama, di tulad ng iba!", and guarantees audiences of raw, documented footage of events as they happened.

Ben, at one point, adapts his show title as his moniker or nickname, calling himself Bitag.

Reaction and Controversy Edit

As a result of his brazenfaced exploits, Ben has received generous praise from supporters who find his brand of crusaders zeal efficient when dealing with the scourges of society, and also jeers from those who consider his behavior repulsive and inappropriate for a media personality.

His aforementioned recklessness has also led to several tension-filled incidents that range from minor physical confrontations to an actual firearm being pointed at him and his staff, prompting many to speculate if he will ever tone down his approach in the interest of his own public image and safety. These gripes are regularly brought up by furious viewers, to which Ben contends that as long as his actions are for the greater good, he will continue to press on with his methods regardless.

It has competition from ABS-CBN's XXX: Exklusibong, Explosibong, Exposé that was hosted by Julius Babao, Pinky Webb and Alex Santos. Ex-Bitag operatives comprise most of its staff and the shows title appears to lampoon the suffix X-treme in Bitag. Another competing investigative television show of this genre of public service, although in a later timeslot, is GMA Network's Imbestigador.

Other competitions include his other brother's brand of public service, including Wanted sa Radyo, Isumbong Mo Kay Tulfo!, and his former co-host's brand, Tutok Tulfo. Bitag acknowledges the existence of such other shows, and he insists that Bitag, oriented to public service, is out of the ordinary because of its unusual focus on real reality, unabridged by typical broadcasting standards.

Ben is not afraid nor ashamed of exposing anomalies committed even by his own employees at BST Tri-Media, in which has resulted in the expulsion of two of his employees to date.

Principles Edit

Tulfos guiding principles are plain and simple, which he iterates at the end of the program:

Makikita ang katotohanan kung sumbungan ang pag-uusapan sa Bitag. Ang pagtitiwalay nakakamit dahil sa resulta - GAWA, HINDI NGAWA. Dito nakakamit ang salitang RESPETO.

If you're talking about complaints and public service, Bitag addresses and reveals the truth and reality. Results earn you trust - walk the walk, not talk the talk. Not whining on the problem, just acting upon the solution. It is through this that you earn respect.

Return to TV5 Edit

Bitag's contract on IBC has expired, and he did not renew. Bitag was forced to move to UNTV's Saturday night slots. Ben Tulfo eventually moved his TV show to AksyonTV, the sister channel of his former network TV5. He teamed up with his other brothers from the other stations and made a TV show called T3: Reload (renamed from T3: Kapatid, Sagot Kita! following the infamous tirade to Raymart Santiago and Claudine Barretto regarding the assault of elder brother Ramon in May 2012).

On October 14, 2011, he returned to TV5. Another spin-off premiered on AksyonTV entitled Pinoy US Cops Ride Along where it chronicles the operations of Filipino police officers in the United States. Both Bitag later returned to IBC and Pinoy US Cops later moved to the People's Television Network, albeit in a producer's cut variety and in broadcast syndication,<sup>[4]</sup> while the UNTV version continued to air Fridays in a commercial-free tandem with Pinoy US Cops: Ride Along in a director's cut.

Ben became involved in the controversy of T3 when he, along with brothers Erwin and Raffy, vowed that the assault towards their eldest brother Mon would not go unanswered.

At the start of 2013, UNTV dropped Bitag, Pinoy US Cops and Bitag Live from its list of programs. Bitag Live then found a home on 92.3 News FM and AksyonTV; furthermore the Bitag segment on T3: Reload was revived after it was renamed Caught in the Act following the said program's reformat.

Michael V with TV5 for Killer Karaoke

October 29, 2013

MANILA, Philippines - Michael V (center, with TV5 president Noel Lorenzana and Entertainment head Wilma Galvante) has returned to TV5 as he inked a contract to be the host of Killer Karaoke Pinoy Naman with John Estrada as the host, the Kapatid Network's franchise of the hit US show Killer Karaoke.

Michael V. honed his comedy skills and talent with TV5 18 years ago (in the then ABC Channel 5) as one of the original members of Tropang Trumpo, which ran for five years. Back when Tropang Trumpo was airing, Michael V. and his ka-Tropa (led by Ogie Alcasid and Gelli de Belen who have also returned to TV5 and became bona fide Kapatid talents) gave viewers a weekly dose of fun and laughter.

Killer Karaoke is a hit in the UK, USA, Russia, Lithuania, Poland, Portugal, Thailand, Argentina, Peru, Brazil, Ecuador and Mexico. The US version was also acquired by TV5 and has been airing every Saturday since Sept. 14. It has been well-received by viewers and TV5 now gives the thrilling karaoke challenge a Pinoy twist.

Premiering on Nov. 16 at 9 p.m. under the direction of Mike Tuviera, Killer Karaoke Pinoy Naman promises to be wackier as Michael V. and John Estrada adds his own brand of comedy to the already hilarious format as Pinoys now get to participate and try out the game show's nerve-wracking challenges.

Michael V. and John Estrada will host Killer Karaoke Pinoy Naman

Last Friday, he inked a contract to host Killer Karaoke Pinoy Naman, which the Kapatid Network is mounting on its channel after acquiring a franchise from the producers of Killer Karaoke in the US.

Killer Karaoke is a big hit in the UK, USA, Russia, Lithuania, Poland, Portugal, Thailand, Argentina, Peru, Brazil, Ecuador, and Mexico. The US version was also acquired by TV5 and has been airing every Saturday since Sept. 14. The network said it has been well-received by viewers and so it decided to give it a Pinoy twist.

The local version pilots on Nov. 16 at 9 p.m. and the network promises it will even be wackier as Bitoy (the popular moniker of Michael V) and John Estrada adds his own brand of comedy to the format.

Michael V to Host a Singing Competition on TV5

October 31, 2013

Veteran Kapuso comedian Michael V. will also join the growing list of GMA 7 artists who are doing shows in the third largest TV network in the Philippines, TV5. In a report published by Philippine star, Michael V was introduced by current TV5 actor Ogie Alcasid.

Based upon the Philippine Star report, Ogie Alcasid, the friend of Michael V. just introduced the comedian to the public as part of their announcement of the new show which will be hosted by Michael V. with John Estrada titled, Killer Karaoke Pinoy Naman.

TV5 confirmed through an article published by PhilStar that the upcoming show Philippine version is a franchise of the highly-popular international Killer Karaoke. The show features contestants attempting to sing while various attempts are made to disrupt their performances. Although the 43-year-old Michael V confirmed his show with TV5, also already in the longest-running comedy gag show Bubble Gang and the sitcom Pepito Manaloto on GMA-7 in the showbiz industry. According to Bitoy, he will be doing a show at TV5 as other GMA artists are doing such as Vic Sotto and Joey de Leon.

The Michael V show on TV5 is one of the new shows that the management of the Manny V. Pangilinan network are currently preparing to compete against their rival programs from ABS-CBN and GMA 7.

According to TV5 Chief Entertainment Content Officer is Ms. Wilma Galvante, the former GMA executive, TV5 prepared shows for the Kapatid Network that will surely compete against the ratings of their rival networks. They bring on board shows hosted by Edu Manzano, Vic Sotto, Joey de Leon, Aga Muhlach, Ogie Alcasid, megastar Sharon Cuneta, Maricel Soriano and Cesar Montano's sitcom Mister N Misis, Dolphy's sitcom Pidol's Wonderland and the latest addition is Michael V. and John Estrada's Killer Karaoke Pinoy Naman.

Michael V. and John Estrada will headline TV5's Saturday night programming as he is set to host Killer Karaoke Pinoy Naman, the localized version of the US show Killer Karaoke, which will premiere on November 16 at 9 p.m.

"For now, I will be hosting as myself. The template being presented to us is just lending such opportunity. We will see what other things we can add to it eventually. But rest assured, we will do everything for the enjoyment of the televiewers," said the well-known master-of-disguise-and-impersonation when asked if he will be creating another funny character for the show.

With his return to TV5, where his TV career started in Tropang Trumpo, Michael V and John Estrada is following in the footsteps of fellow comedian-hosts Joey de Leon and Vic Sotto who work in two stations at the same time.

Since Michael V says, “Our target is to tape as much episodes as we can.” This is true because Killer Karaoke Pinoy Naman involves changing of set-ups for the various challenges. Given his TV commitments now, Michael V will make sure that the schedules of his shows. Taking a cue from the US version, Killer Karaoke Pinoy Naman is a singing contest which is open “to all. That’s why there’s a screening or audition (which includes checking the blood pressure of contestants). They should be game. It’s katuwaan. This is a singing contest with (a twist) and kalokohan,” shares TV5 Entertainment executive Wilma Galvante. “There’s one rule: No matter what happens, you don’t stop singing.”

Contestants will have their own song choice to perform, while unexpected challenges are being presented to them. Snakes, frogs and eels may be used to distract them from singing the song and finishing it. The audience has the power to vote which contestant will take home the prize. Getting out of tune is a big no-no on the show.

“Winning Killer Karaoke (Pinoy Naman) depends on the performer,” says Michael V. “He has to perform very well, otherwise, the audience will not vote for him.” In a press conference held this Friday during his contract signing with TV5 for the game show, October 25, Michael said that he’s thrilled to return to the Kapatid Network where he first started his career as a comedian via the gag show Tropang Trumpo. Michael in these days as he is also already with his regular shows on GMA Network, including Bubble Gang and Pepito Manaloto.

To make the show into the zone, so to speak, and close to Pinoy’s entertainment palate, the Killer Karaoke Pinoy Naman creative team will come up with new ideas. Other franchisees in the world might adapt them. Michael V will lend a hand in improving the show.

According to the network’s statement, Killer Karaoke has become a hit in such countries as Argentina, Brazil, Ecuador, Lithuania, Mexico, Poland, Peru, Russia, Thailand, the UK and the US.

For the pilot episode, one can expect a celebrity edition with Ogie Alcasid being first on the list. Ogie is afraid of snakes. It might be hilarious to see him hit the right notes with slimy creatures around him.

Killer Karaoke Pinoy Naman is part of the Kapatid Network’s Weekend Do It Better.

Gameplay Edit

Originally, the contestants must first play a preliminary round, called "Fastest Finger First", where they are all given a question and four answers from the host and are asked to put those four answers into a particular order. The contestant who does so correctly and in the fastest time goes on to sit in a chair in the center of the set, known as the "Hot Seat," and play for the prize. Once in the Hot Seat, the contestant is asked increasingly difficult general knowledge questions by the host. Questions are multiple choice: four possible answers are given (labeled A, B, C, and D), and the contestant must choose the correct one. Upon answering a question correctly, the contestant wins a certain amount of money. After questions, the host will ask the contestant "is that your final answer?" When a contestant says "final" in conjunction with one of the answers, it is official, and cannot be changed. For the first few questions, there is a possibility for the contestant to leave with no money if they fail to reach the guaranteed amounts.

IBC Version Edit

The first version of the show was hosted by actor Christopher de Leon. The first season of the original Millionaire, which began on November 20, 2000, had its 15th question prize of P1,000,000. In 2001, the final question's prize was doubled to P2,000,000.

The show lost its popularity soon after its original studio in Parañaque City (Viva Television Studio, the same one used by the Philippine version of The Weakest Link) was destroyed by a fire, and after the show moved to Riverbanks Center in Marikina City. Its last original episode was aired December 14, 2002.

No one has ever won the game by way of answering all fifteen questions correctly in this incarnation. There have been two contestants who went the closest: DLSU professor Amelita Lopez-Forbes and actress Sharon Cuneta, who each answered 14 questions correctly and won a million pesos in separate instances in 2001.

On February 2012, after an almost 10-year hiatus, Viva Television announced to comeback of Who Wants to Be a Millionaire? airing on Viva-TV on IBC with Christopher de Leon that relaunch on February 25, 2012. At 8PM, Aga Muhlach is the game master in the interactive game show, Let's Ask Pilipinas, based on the original show by Warner Bros. Aga hosted a dry run during the launch with advertising people as the contestants and it's really a lot of fun. At 8:30PM, they have The Gift, with Ogie Alcasid as a songwriter who loses his girlfriend, Ara Mina, in a tragic accident. He inherits Ara's son, a boy gifted with a third eye, directed by Mike Tuviera.

Also at 8:30PM, they have Positive, which is what Wilma Galvante calls Drama with a Purpose as it's about the lead character Martin Escudero's journey after learning that he's HIV positive. Supporting him are Rufa Mae Quinto, Helga Kraft, Mercedes Cabral, Bianca Manalo and Malak So Shdifat, who play the women who might have given him the AIDS virus, directed by Eric Quizon. Also in the cast are Bing Loyzaga as his mom and Felix Roco as his best friend. At 9:15PM, is an adult sex-drama, For Love or Money, with Alice Dixson playing a filthy rich DOW (dirty old woman) who seduces Derek Ramsay away from wifey Ritz Azul, helmed by Mac Alejandre.

Each night ends with the late night news Pilipinas News with Atty. Dong Puno, Cheri Mercado and Jove Francisco at 11PM. News5 Head Luchi Cruz Valdez introduced their new informative shows at 11:30PM billed as KBO (Karunungan Balita Opinyon) led by Paolo Bediones on Monday in Demolition Job which dissects, refutes or proves some commonly accepted facts. Tuesday, Cheryl Cosim scrutinizes stories and facts behind relevant statistics in Numero. Wednesday, Lourd De Verya gives his own brand of history lessons in History. Thursday, Atty. Teresa Licaros tackles the plight of OFWs in Dayo. Paolo returns on Friday to bring sports stories in Astig.

Saturday at 5:30PM, half local, full global Fil-Brits Brian Wilson, Daniel Marsch, Michale McDonnell, Charlie Sutcliffe and Henry Edwards who hit it big in Youtube will be featured in their own show, Juan Directio (here's hoping Simon Cowell won't complain.)

At the start of the launch, new TV5 Pres. Noel Lorenzana says their new shows will offer a new and alternative viewing experience, a merger of news and pop culture that can be provocative and start dialogue. They also aim to provide a different way of viewing through the second screen digital experience where you can watch on your cellphones and tablets. Head of Media 5 sales and marketing Menchi Orlina also spoke and said their main target is the youthful dynamic market. Sports5 Head Chot Reyes also revealed that the PBA will be seen live on TV5 starting with the 2014 basketball season. With all these new shows and innovations, here's hoping TV5 will now be in better fighting form in the ratings game.

- Anong Pangarap Nag-lisa Mundo - A singer and disc jockey Joe D' Mango, who is now behind the hit OPM pop song. As the often emotional, classical and sentimental OPM format concerns in their relationships and the love story, is composed by Ryan Cayabyab.

Before the finals night held in Smart Araneta Coliseum in April 1, 2013 and during a rehearsal at TV5 Studios in Novaliches in a press interview from News5, singer and songwriter Ogie Alcasid had said the new compilation album called Go5: Handog ang OPM Hits 2013 serves as the Kapatid singers and joining-forces of various TV5 Records artist and a revitalization of Philippine music entertainment industry in spite of mainstream OPM music invasion that would be trade and competition. Some of Talent5 artist were also satisfied and excited to sing the crafted song from promising candidate composers, saying there's always be friends of Go5, in order to cooperate their music business of MediaQuest, thanks to TV5 chairman Manny V. Pangilinan.

There were Go5 options to vote: one by means of SMS voting after listening a featured song on 106.7 Energy FM and Radyo5 92.3 News FM are the TV5's radio stations and watching a featured music video on TV5, second by means of voting slip from official CD release at leading music record bars, and thirdly by means of online overseas vote from TV5.com.ph affiliate website of Philippine overseas TV channel Kapatid TV5 (KTV5) as well as its online radio Balut Radio. The highest number of votes of featured song craft and the music video on the aforementioned competition will win a special prize of only tens of thousands of pesos, while the majorly judging for best featured song craft will win one million pesos.

But in spite of the fact that all 20 hit songs were in high-quality and high-popularity state and that would possibly become mainstream in various high-rated FM radio stations through a majority of ordinary Filipino listeners, the judges—such as various TV5 management and guests Vehnee Saturno and Sarah Geronimo—during the finals have had often difficult to regulate the score concerning the quality of the content of various song craft finalists that often gave a mere 100%, so therefore, I thought, the organizer had decided to make a majority judge vote rather than to include a full basis from majority SMS, CD Audio case-enclosed slip, or overseas online votes from loyal TV5 TV viewers. Before they vote wisely, they discussed in secret meeting on which song would deserve as momentous and highly appraised song content. (See list below the complete results after the finals.)

Energy FM Listener's Choice: Paano Muna Sa'yo?

DWET-FM Energy FM 106.7 MHz Manila Listener's Choice: Paano Muna Sa'yo?

CD Audio Album Buyer's Choice: Paano Muna Sa'yo?

Kapatid TV Online Vote Choice: Forever I Love

Best Music Video Produced by Colleges/Universities: Paano Muna Sa'yo?

Best Song by Majority Judging: Bukod may langit (10th place), novelty hits Kakumanta Samahan (9th place), Isang Langit (8th place), Beautiful for You (7th place), We Needed Again (6th place), Loving For You (5th place), Did It Over (4th place), Pwede Ka Na (3rd place), Will Life of the Most (2nd place) and the new pop rock OPM hit of telenovela Walang Akong Tama (grand winner).

Whether the rest of the 16 out of the 18 songs aside from the winning ones would not deserved to win a grand prize, the most important is that all the featured songs of the aforementioned song festival in the Philippines of 2013 produced by TV5 deserves to be a winner of listening taste to every Filipino audience, outleading other song festival for the past few decades.

Go5: Handog and OPM Hit 2013 is still out in CD Audio album release at leading record stores, offer good this 2013. We will have to wish for listening to play various songs featured on aforementioned song festival of TV5 of 2013 after the finals all over high-rated FM radio stations such as 90.7 Love Radio, 101.1 Yes! FM, 93.9 iFM, 97dot9 Home Radio, Pinas FM 95.5, Bombo Star FM, 103.5 WOW FM, 96.3 Easy Rock, 91.5 BIG Radio, and 107.5 WIN Radio aside from DWET-FM (106.7 Energy FM) and DWFM (Radyo 92.3 News FM). ## Format Edit

Sharon's Kasama Mo, Kapatid, a morning lifestyle talk show sounded like a whole lot of hard work and pressure on her, on TV5 which has to prove to everyone that getting the Megastar to change courts after 30 years was the right decision. In speaking of the endless meetings they had for the concept to jell, Sharon spoke of how she noticed Perci Intalan, TV5 VP head of creative and entertainment observing her vividly. When her face lit up, Perci knew that was the sign she was happy with the discussions. And most often it had to do with bringing the show down to the masa, the ordinary viewer with ordinary dreams, but bigger problems than most of us.

For her dealings with TV5, Sharon had put up a company Mega Productions involving Boss Vic del Rosario who is also her manager, and Sandra Chavez, prime mover of Artist House. Quite a few of her staff from ABS-CBN followed her. They, too, therefore have a stake in the program, and future shows involving Mega.

Every weekday mornings at the studio of TV5 for the audience and the special guests of the day in a variety of topics, from affordable beauty and fashion tips, cooking, negosyo, relationship and love advices, family and parenting, homemaking / how tos / DIYs to health and fitness tips. Each day will be focused on one topic, giving our viewers a different experience everyday.

‘Game ‘N Go All Stars’ ups the ante in Sunday noontime viewing fare

January 25, 2013

Game 'N Go All Stars co-hosts Shalani Soledad-Romulo and host Edu Manzano.

While Willie Revillame's Wowowillie is expected to shake up the status quo of noontime entertainment every weekday and Saturday when it finally premieres on January 26, TV5 is not taking Sundays off. The next day, Game N' Go, its game-changing noontime buffet of treats, gets its own spanking new coat of paint.

Now called Game N' Go All Stars, the newly relaunched and slightly reformatted show will now feature Kapatid stars and celebrities as they compete against one another in games that are not only exciting but downright hilarious.

Conceptualized as a combination of a variety show, a game show and comedy sketch, Game N' Go has found its own place and has emerged as a formidable challenger in a time slot while P.O.5 now monopolized by the song and dance equation embraced by competitors ASAP and Party Pilipinas.

The premiere telecast of the newly-reformatted show this Sunday takes the returning Game N' Go gang of Joey de Leon, Edu Manzano, Gelli de Belen, Arnell Ignacio, Daniel Matsunaga, and Shalani Soledad-Romulo in a special remote broadcast at the Recom Multi-Purpose Gymnasium at the Glorietta Sports Complex in Tala, Caloocan City.

Along with an overflowing crowd of residents in the area, the Game N' Go All Stars hosts will be joined by four teams featuring TV5's rising young talents along with the Artista Academy graduates and The Amazing Race Philippines finalists against each other with the network's top comic talents, namely Tuesday Vargas, Long Mejia, Joy Viado, Dominic Ochoa and Shalala as their team captains.

The teams will battle it out in the Game N' Go arena in challenges similar to such famed Hollywood game shows as American Gladiators, Global Guts and Hole In The Wall.

The segment is only one of many new innovations to look forward to even as portions that have become fan favorites such as Singgaling Go and Pritong Pares are retained. No less than Sophie Albert and Vin Abrenica – Artista Academy winners and stars of the new romantic drama, Never Say Goodbye — will literally electrify viewers in Pritong Pares.

Vin Abrenica and Sophie Albert get a jolt during the Pritong Pares segment as co-host Joey de Leon looks on, amused.

Other rollicking games to look forward to in the season premiere are Tumbanggaan and Runtaranta Anak Ng Prutas which will not only put the reflexes of the celebrity guests to a test but will also challenge their abilities to think on their feet.

And then, there are also the GAGA Dancers, who seem to have found their niche and own fan following. Composed of blonde dancers from Australia, Russia and Cuba, these sexy dancers have become part and parcel of the Game N' Go family and should continue to remain staples as Game N' Go All Stars takes the game show concept to a higher level.

Game 'N Go All Stars will premiere January 27, 10:15 a.m. on TV5.

News5 gives birth to a new genre in broadcasting with Reaksyon, a news magazine and public affairs segment that will widen people's knowledge of the news through in-depth reports and first hand insights from a mix of young and seasoned journalists of the news organization led by Luchi Cruz-Valdes.

History Edit

First broadcast under the name Willing Willie, the show was formed as a result of the cancellation of Wowowee and the transfer of Willie Revillame to TV5. Several personalities from Wowowee appearing on Willing Willie include DJ Coki Meneses (disc jockey), Owen Ercia (floor director), Anna Feliciano (choreographer), April "Congratulations" Gustillo, Lovely Abella and some former ASF dancers who comprise the in-house WW.Girls.<sup>[5][6]</sup>

The show premiered on October 23, 2010 with Willie Revillame as host and Mo Twister as co-host. It was earlier reported that Revillame was courting Sandra Seiffert and Venus Raj as co-hosts, but both declined the offer.<sup>[7][8]</sup> Valenzuela City councilor Shalani Soledad accepted the job, eventually appearing on the November 8, 2010 episode.<sup>[9]</sup>

Dancer feuds Edit

Two WW.Girl members, Aprilyn "Congratulations" Gustillo and Monique "Pak" Natada, were suspended for five days from the show on November 2010 because of a fight over a lipstick.<sup>[10][11]</sup> On January 12, 2011, the WW.Girls group was given a three-day suspension for fighting over each other in Twitter.<sup>[12][13]</sup>

Copyright infringement allegations Edit

On November 24, 2010, ABS-CBN filed a copyright infringement suit against Willie Revillame, Wil Productions, Inc. and TV5 for allegedly copying Wowowee in Willing Willie. However, hearings on the case, which was filed at the Makati Regional Trial Court Branch 66 under presiding judge Joselito C. Villarosa, was suspended after the Court of Appeals granted the request for a temporary restraining order (TRO) by TV5.<sup>[14]</sup>

TV5 then filed a petition for certiorari, prohibition and writ of preliminary injunction before the Court of Appeals. ABS-CBN responded by filing a motion seeking to dismiss the petition of the former. On March 10, 2011, the Court of Appeals ruled in favor of TV5.<sup>[15][16]</sup>

Child abuse controversy Edit

On March 12, 2011, Willing Willie featured a segment in which a 6-year old boy performed a 'macho dance' to the tune of Dr. Dre's *The Next Episode* as his talent. At first, the incident came and went without much clamor. It wasn't until a clip of the show was posted on YouTube that it began eliciting an online furor. On March 25, Benjamin Pimental of the Inquirer wrote, "We have a big problem if it's OK for most people to let a big shot TV host treat a child like garbage."<sup>[17]</sup> This was followed by the Department of Social Welfare and Development releasing a statement three days later asserting that this was a clear case of child abuse.<sup>[18][19][20]</sup> In a press statement, the DSWD condemned 'the emotional abuse and humiliation bestowed on a six-year-old child contestant'.<sup>[21]</sup> The Commission on Human Rights (CHR) is currently pursuing an investigation of the program for violating Section 10 of Republic Act No. 7610, or the Special Protection of Children Against Abuse, Exploitation, and Discrimination Act.<sup>[22]</sup>

The Movie and Television Review and Classification Board is also conducting hearings on the issue. On April 8, three members of the MTRCB panel inhibited from the case.<sup>[23]</sup> The decision of the MTRCB is due by the end of May.<sup>[24]</sup>

Mang Inasal, Procter & Gamble, CDO, Cebuana Lhuiller, Nutri-Asia and Unilever pulled out their advertisements from the show on the first week of April<sup>[32]</sup> after pressures resulting from this controversy.<sup>[33][34]</sup>

As a result, Revillame announced that the show would be on hiatus starting April 11. He warned that charges would also be filed against those who attacked him on Twitter.<sup>[35][36][37][38]</sup> He questioned why only Willing Willie was singled out, while other shows such as Showtime and Goin' Bulilit<sup>[39]</sup> were not.

On April 18, 2011, Revillame stated that he would no longer file charges against the celebrities who attacked him on Twitter.<sup>[40]</sup>

On April 25, 2011, the End Child Prostitution, Child Pornography and Trafficking of Children for Sexual Purposes (ECPAT) filed a child abuse case against Revillame, TV5 and its officials, including chairman Manuel V. Pangilinan.<sup>[41]</sup> The DSWD filed a similar suit two days later.<sup>[42]</sup> The show did not resume on April 25, pending a go-signal from TV5.<sup>[43]</sup> On April 27, the Philippine Entertainment Portal reported that the show would resume on May 7 with a new format.

On May 3, 2011, MTRCB issued a month-long suspension for the show and placed it under probationary status, meaning that the show needs daily permits from the MTRCB before airing after the suspension is lifted. The days that had passed since the show voluntarily went off the air on April 8 were counted.<sup>[44]</sup>

Poverty perpetuation Edit

In the process of deliberating the sanctions against Willing Willie, the MTRCB, saying that it was heeding the call for sweeping reforms of the television industry, also brought up the matter of whether the show, and others like it on Philippine television, attracts its audience by offering 'quick fixes' to the audience members' poverty in the form of prize money.<sup>[45]</sup>

In the decision of the board in which it suspended the Willing Willie show,<sup>[44]</sup>, it stated<sup>[45]</sup>:

Wil Time Bigtime Edit

On May 9, 2011, Cristy Fermin reported on Juicy! Express that the show would return with a new title, Wil Time Bigtime, on May 14, occupying the same timeslot.<sup>[46]</sup>

Rolling game show ‘Jeepney Jackpot’ hits the streets Edit

A unique game show from TV5 hit the streets on Monday, and it may just provide the relief Filipino commuters need from Metro Manila’s daily traffic gridlock.

Jeepney Jackpot: Pera o Para is a game show on wheels that lets six passengers play for cash and prizes. The game takes place right inside a 30-foot-long jeepney that also serves as a mobile studio.

The trip is hosted by Mr. Fu, Valeen Montenegro, Onemig Bondoc and Saida Diola (The Amazing Race Philippines), with Alizon Andres at the wheel.

Mr. Fu promises a rewarding journey where no passenger goes home empty-handed. “Super swerte ito. Lahat ng sasakay, hindi bababa ng luhaan!” he said.

The inaugural trip of Jeepney Jackpot on Monday began at the TV5 station in Novaliches and ended at the TV5 offices at the Marajo Tower in Taguig where a blessing ceremony was held for the Kapatid Network’s unique mobile studio.

In attendance were TV5 president and CEO Ray C. Espinosa, COO Bobby Barreiro, consultant Wilma Galvante, and News Head Luchi Cruz-Valdez.

Also present was Entertainment and Creative Head Perci Intalan, who beamed with pride at TV5’s latest programming innovation. “It’s a show na nakikita nila. Hindi sila kailangan pumunta ng studio para manood. Minsan makakasabay pa nila sa traffic,” he said.

He said Jeepney Jackpot is just a sample of the many unique and happy offerings TV5 has in store for its viewers in 2013.

Wowowillie’ is 2013 wake-upper

December 24, 2012

Talks are rife that Channel 5 is unveiling and revealed Wowowillie on the second week of January 2013, following the exit of Willing Willie on January 5. The new noontime show will broadcast daily at the TV5 Media Center in Mandaluyong City, which is currently undergoing complete renovation.

Like Willie, Vic and Joey are also TV5 artists. It is said that the two EB hosts earlier agreed to work on TV5 shows for as long as the network doesn't field a competing show to the long-running Eat Bulaga.

In bouncing back to the noontime slot, TV5 hopes to renew Willie's strength as a TV host. It cannot be denied that Willing Willie's early evening timeslot affected the show's ratings and Willie's popularity.

TV5 revamps Saturday primetime shows

Septemebr 3, 2013

With the two giant networks, ABS-CBN and GMA-7, in a stiff competition over their primetime shows, TV5 chooses to strengthen its Saturday programming.

September, particularly the "14-15 weekend," is going to be a big month for the Kapatid station. In a press conference held earlier, September 2, in Luxent Hotel, chief entertainment content officer Wilma Galvante underscored, "... ang focus ng TV5 ay primetime lang muna. Hindi muna lalaban iyan sa daytime..."

Every Saturday nights at 7:45 p.m. with Killer Karaoke as Galvante put it, "It's a different take on singing contest... Isa lang ang kanyang rule: whatever happens, you don't stop singing."

Initially, it will air episodes from the U.S. game show itself; then, in October, the local version will be hosted by John Estrada.

Edu Manzano's What's Up Doods, a TV sitcom will be at 9 p.m. TV5's new president Noel Lorenzana sees the "different genres" of their line-up attracting viewers who want to "relax, laugh, and quiet down" on weekends.

At 10:45 p.m., gag show Tropa Mo Ko Unli will take center stage with Ogie Alcasid and Gelli de Belen reliving the humor of the defunct Tropang Trumpo and the Lokomoko U guys contributing to the riotous laughter on the set.

Every Sunday at 4 p.m. will be owned by Showbiz Pulis, which will be hosted by Cristy Fermin, Lucy Torres, Raymond Gutierrez, and Joey Reyes.

Galvante said the format is best explained by its tagline: "Intriga under arrest." Showbiz issues will be clarified and given closure, with some help from their chief reporters: Dan Castaño, MJ Marfori, and Divine Lee. For Galvante's part, she described it as a "back to back combination of funny entertainment... walang drama ito." PEP.ph (Philippine Entertainment Portal) asked: Has the network addressed the "hindi mapanood" and "mahina ang signal" complaints of viewers?

Lorenzana's reply: "It's a work in progress. By November, we should be at par [with] the other networks." As an example, he cited the FIBA coverage, which, according to Mega Manila TV Audience Measurement (MEGATAM) overnight data of Nielsen Media Research, got over "five million viewers" tuned in from August 10 to 11. He resumed, "... if people want to watch you, they will watch you."

Over the one-hour chat, some issues thrown at the Manny Pangilinan-owned company were also brought up. Reports claimed that they made an attempt to pirate big female stars of the Kapuso and Kapamilya channels.

Last year, the tittle-tattle was: huge amount of money went to the big stars, while those working behind-the-scenes got so little. Lorenzana assured, "things are getting better," and that the new programs have helped revive the "belief" of employees.

Game Format Edit

This version of the show is based heavily on the American version which in turn is based on The Million Pound Drop Live. At the beginning, a pair of contestants are presented with a million pesos (40 bundles of 25,000 pesos in 20 peso bills), they must be able to keep their money until the end of the game by correctly answering 8 multiple choice questions by placing their bundles of money on the trapdoor (among 4) they think is correct in 60 seconds. If they are wrong, the money placed on the trapdoor will fall down the "money drop". They may distribute their money on multiple trapdoors if they are not sure of the answer, however, one trapdoor must always be left empty. At certain questions, a trapdoor is put out of play. Whatever money they have left is theirs to keep.

Quick Change Edit

The contestants may use one "Quick Change" during the game, on any question except the eighth. This feature allows them an extra 30 seconds to distribute their cash among the trapdoors. If no trapdoors are left open and the contestants still have the Quick Change, it will automatically be used.
